

Welcome to SILVAR's Global Program Page

We invite you to click on the links to articles pertaining to SILVAR's Global Business Council achievements, programs and activities, and other global real estate articles that might help you in your global real estate business.

SILVAR's Global Business Council is open to all SILVAR members, including REALTORS® and affiliates who have attended CIPS (Certified International Property Specialist) Institutes at SILVAR and would like to continue learning more about global real estate.

Our Mission Statement:

"The Silicon Valley Association of REALTORS® Global Business Council provides a system of information, resources, networking and skills training to enhance the professionalism and success of members in their local markets with international and multicultural clients and customers."
